

For Immediate Release April 21, 2005

Senate Republicans introduce legislation to stimulate job growth

Who: Senate Majority Leader Ken Sikkema, R-Wyoming, and State Sens. Tony Stamas, R-Midland, Jason Allen, R-Traverse City, and Mike Goschka, R-Brant.

What: Press conference announcing a new legislative package designed to stimulate the state's economy by providing incentives for small businesses, resulting in job

Contact: Kristin Beltzer

(517) 373-8880

opportunities for Michigan residents.

When: Friday, April 22

1:30 p.m.

Where: Wright-K Technology Inc.

2025 E. Genesee Ave.

Saginaw

Briefing: Small businesses account for 60 to 80 percent of the net new jobs created annually.

###